EDITOR'S DESK

A Genealogist is always willing to help another. At least that has been my experience. Most of us can tell a story of the trust of one Genealogist to another. So, commencing now, for those of you who wish to help another who might be working in the same area as you. I am including a Membership & Publication list. This list is of the Society's you belong to and the area's you might be able to help another in. Not only for our ARTHUR'S but the other families we are searching for. We all have special areas which we have a little more than average knowledge about. How about sharing this with other members? Of course for those writing for information, I am sure you know to send a SASE with your query. But at the risk of sounding like a broken record--send that Stamped, Addressed, Envelope for your answer.

On the subject of sharing, the AFN received a letter from Mrs. Jane WOOD, of Maryland, offering to share what ARTHUR record's she has. Not an ARTHUR researcher, she is interested in the History of Cecil Co. MD and shared these record's with us, as did the Mt. Hood Gen. Forum of Clackamas Co. OR. Both are in this issue. This isn't the first time the AFN has received help from others not related, but it always renews my faith in people. We must be one of the nicest and most helpful group of hobbist's in America. So much for that pat on our backs.

I really hate to "continue" records from one issue to next. Sometimes have to, but did include all of the Bedford Co. VA marriage record's in this issue(4 pages). If you would prefer it done this way, let me know, and I will continue to do so. There are 7 pages of the DAR Military records(2 pages in this issue). It would cut down on the other record's but would complete your records of a given subject quicker. Would you prefer to have 2 pages of each State, continued when needed, or all the record's of one subject (such as in this issue)? Let me know, your opinion on this or any other suggestion you might have.

Mrs. Jane WOOD, Box 503 RD2; North East, MD 21901. A genealogist who is interested in the History of Cecil County MD. Jane was kind enough to send the AFN the following ARTHUR record's. She also said that she has extensive records for the HART'S & HYLAND'S who are connected with Mark ARTHUR(m.Nancy HART). She can furnish a good deal of material on these families if anyone happens to be descended thru him.

DATA PERTAINING TO ARTHURS OF CECIL COUNTY MARYLAND

Equity Court Case involving property of Nancy (HYLAND)HART to be divided among her heirs: To wit, Nicholas HART; Jane HART; Nancy HART; & Elizabeth HART. (has background material if anyone asks)

Nancy HART married Mark ARTHURS and had issue: Robert H.; Catherine; William & Mark ARTHURS. All born after 1814 (Listed as under 21 in 1835) One year later Robert H. (above) sold his share to his father, Mark Sr., so he must have come of age by then. Mark Sr. m. a second time to Araminta MAULDEN LORT & they were still in Cecil County in the 1850 census, but no children were living with them at that time. A Robert ARTHURS m. Mary E. HICKMAN in 1843 and I assume he was the one mentioned above.

The following are random notes concerning ARTHURS from my file:

A deposition taken in 1756 in connection with new munster, part of which later became New Castle, Del. Mentioned, Robert ARTHUR, age 40, & Mathew ARTHUR, age 50.

A Robert ARTHUR "of Kent County" mentioned in Cecil County records in 1758 in reference to new munster again.

A Mark ARTHURS was bound to a Joel BRYAN as an apprentice farmer for ten years in 1832. With the consent of his father.

Testamentary papers in 1843 mention the estate of William ARTHURS whose father relinquished his right to administer the estate & appointed Robert ARTHUR.

Early MD Marriages list Alexander ARTHUR & Mary SMITH in Anne Arundel County 1704.

1850 Census of Kent County Delaware lists;

pg.239	Arthur ARTHURS	age 9
pg.197	Elizabeth "	64
	Joshua	8
	Mathew	6	(none in Newcastle or Sussex)
	Susan	3
	William	11
	William	41

PIERCE'S REGISTER mentions Thomas ARTHUR twice in connection with payment for service in MD troops in the Rev. War. Mentions James with 3rd Reg. PA.

Chestertown MD Cemetery contains tombstones for:

David ARTHUR who died 11 Mar. 1873, age 83

TENNESSEE

CUMBERLAND GAP---ITS HISTORY & ROMANCE" by Brian H. MORGANS, London England (Placed in Holiday Inn, U.S.--25E Cumberland Gap, Tenn. 37724) Sent to AFN by Mrs. Heyward M. JOHNSON, Ellaville, Ga.

After the war the Cumberland Gap area lay a desolate waste-it appeared doomed to oblivion, except as a route through which the Blue Grass farmer could drive his livestock back to Eastern Markets. The cries of the drovers alone awakened the silence of the desolate Wilderness Road. There were few habitations and they were mostly rough taverns to serve the stockmen. The place was, to all intent, forgotten and neglected. But, in 1886 there came another pioneer, he too came along the Wilderness Trail, he also came to seek new resources and to open up new territory.

A man of vision was Alexander Alan ARTHUR, and no doubt he too climbed the Pinnacle and was entranced by the vast view. ARTHUR was born in Canada, educated in Scotland and England as an engineer and prior to arriving in Cumberland Gap in 1886, he already had experience of developing large scale timber interests in Tennessee. His object was further development of natural resources and it was not long before he realized the potential of the area. The deposits of iron ore to the South of the mountain, together with the coal seams on the North side and the limestone in great quantities, spelled out industrial development on a grand scale, provided that he could obtain the capital to set it all in motion. He went back to the City of London and there raised many millions from British financial interests, and he organized a land company to exploit the purchase of some 150,000 acres of wilderness which he bought from the few mountaineers who then owned the lands.

With great drive and energy, ARTHUR organized the American Association Limited, together with a local subsidiary, The Middlesborough Town and Land Company, to build a city which they named after Middlesborough in Yorkshire, which was famous as an industrial center with iron furnaces, vast manufactures and railways. His dream was a similar city to rival Pittsburgh and Birmingham, but to achieve this he must have communications and outlets for his products of his enterprises. He brought in the railroads by driving tunnels through the hills and under the gap itself, one from Knoxville at tremendous cost and another came down the valley from Pineville and then by belt-line railroad around the city to communicate with the valleys down which coal poured from the mines up in the hills.

(Cumberland Gap, where Kentucky, Virginia, and Tennessee meet).

From Ardith H. Johnson-Middlesborough the town that Alexander Alan ARTHUR built in 1886, is now in Bell County (formerly Knox & Harlan, formerly Lincoln) The 1820 & 1830 census records for Knox County showed both Thomas Sr. & Thomas ARTHUR Jr. in the Clear Creek section. Clear Creek is just outside of Middlesboro, (between Middlesboro and Pineville). It is possible that the ARTHURS already established in the area could have been relatives of Alexander Alan ARTHUR--- maybe just a coincidence!!

END OF BEDFORD COUNTY MARRIAGE BONDS

THE VIRGINIA GENEALOGIST 1976; pages 222-225

Copy of an account filed in the Governor's Office records at the Va. State Library. A letter written by Dudley CALLAWAY & Jesse REYNOLDS of Lynchburg, Va. A Copy of a Campaign of soldiers during the Rev. War. Names: in 1776 Joseph SCRUGGS as Captain of a Company of riflemen for 2 years in Bedford Co. Va.; Isham TALBOT, Barney ARTHUR and Joseph CANTY as under officers.

This is a very interesting letter, the purpose, a plea for help from the government for the soldiers of the Rev. War, "who are very old and feeble, not able to do hard labour, and are destitute of the necessities of life in the Evening of our days"

Has descriptions of many battles to show how hard they all fought. Battles included: Trenton, where they took 900 Hessians; with Genl. WASHINGTON, when they had several "hard battles"; under Genl. MORGAN & a part of his rifle core; Sumerset Ct. house; engag'd Lord STERLING killing & wounded 150 of his men; They were discharged 300 miles from homes, without one cent of money, or a single ration in the winter season.

Tells about their hardships, marching for miles in bare feet, starving and freezing. Reading this will give you a better insight as to the conditions that existed in that war.

EDITOR'S DESK

Commencing with this issue, the AFN begins its second year. So much information has been received and I do want to share it all as quickly as possible. So, as of this issue, the AFN is being increased to 20 pages. The cost for a year's subscription will still be $5.00.

Do send in those queries for print. There are no restrictions on the amount you can have in a year. Also a reminder to send your pedigree chart's to be published. I realize you are all busy. But this helps other's who might be working on the same ARTHUR family as you.

Did you know that Congress is about to release the restrictions on the 1900 Census? Good news for all of us.

The holiday season is now behind us. Now we are all getting back to our genealogy. I hope 1978 will be a good year for all of you.

Register of the KY Historical Society; April 1970

Survey 1782-begins "at the path leading from Holston to Ky. about 3/4 mile from the ford of Hazel Branch on the NW side of Hazel Path"- Skaggs' Trace then followed this creek westward where it is joined by Little Hazel Patch Creek. Seems likely that the old trace used ARTHUR'S TRAIL on the way to the junction of the Hazel Patch & Altamont Creeks, (originally called Larkin Creek).

OHIO

Joseph LATHUR, born 1773 Franklin Co. Penn. near Chambersburg. In 1800 he paid taxes there. Moved to Ohio 1829. He married Mary MCCLAUGHLIN before 1811. He settled near a small town of Union, Clark County Ohio, between Springfield & Dayton. He is buried (1842) at the Knob Hill Cemetery on Route #4 near Union. His oldest son Daniel stayed in the area rather than going on as some of the rest of the family did. He married Malinda RUE, the daughter of the Inn Keeper where they stayed over night. Joseph may have purchased some land from John RUE as the families were neighbors and the children attended the same school near BOONE Station.

Daniel and Malinda (RUE) LATHUR moved to Auglaize County and settled near the land of the BOWSHERS near Griderstown and Wapakoneta.

When submitting your pedigree chart, send a complete chart for the master file. To save space it will be shortened to your ANTHUR line. Place an asterick (*) by the ancestors you need to know more about. To find the father of any person, simply double their number on the chart. The wife of any man is found by adding one.
